

Sergej SEKULOVIĆ, MA

MINISTER OF INTERIOR OF MONTENEGRO

B I O G R A P H Y

He was born in 1978 in Podgorica, where he finished primary and secondary school. He graduated from the Faculty of Law of the University of Montenegro, after which, he specialised in the fields of human rights and democracy at the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies at the University of Sarajevo, as well as at the University of Bologna, where he earned a master's degree in human rights.

After completed studies and two years of internship at the Basic Court in Podgorica, for many years he was engaged at the University of Montenegro as a demonstrator in the subject "Fundamentals of Human Rights and Freedoms", but also as a guest lecturer at the Faculty of Political Sciences. He worked as an advisor in the Assembly and as an advisor in the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare in the Government of Electoral Trust, and since 2012 he has been actively practicing law.

He was engaged as a lecturer by a large number of civil society organizations, such as the Center for Civic Education, the Association of Professional Journalists, ADAMAS etc, on the subject of human rights with special emphasis on areas related to freedom of expression, the right to privacy and discrimination.

Independently or as a co-author, he published studies and scientific articles in various fields of law - constitutional law, an effective remedy in administrative proceedings, the rights of persons with disabilities and freedom of assembly, as well as columns on current political and social topics.

He is the Vice President of the Association of Lawyers of Montenegro.

He speaks English.

He was elected Minister of the Interior in the 42nd Government of Montenegro on December 4, 2020.