

Filip Adžić

Minister of the Interior

Born on 15 September 1986 in Cetinje, Filip Adžić has embraced a diverse range of experiences and demonstrated exceptional leadership in various domains.

His educational journey led him to complete his primary and secondary education in Cetinje before pursuing undergraduate and specialist studies at the renowned Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality in Kotor.

Professionally, he has made significant contributions as the Vice President of the Civic Movement URA. His dedication to public service is evident from his previous role as a member of the Cetinje Municipal Assembly.

Adžić's pursuit of knowledge and excellence took him to Luxembourg, where he honed his expertise through professional development programs under the guidance of the European Commission (EUROSTAT). He actively participated in the formulation of the "Strategy for the Development of Official Statistics 2014-2018" and contributed to the creation of the "Statistical Requirements Compendium." Moreover, he played a crucial role in the ETF project "Skills for the Future," highlighting his commitment to shaping a prosperous tomorrow.

Beyond his official responsibilities, Adžić is deeply engaged in the community and is an active member of various informal civic groups. His commitment to fostering positive change extends beyond the realm of statistics and governance.

While excelling in the professional arena, Adžić also embraces a passion for sports. As a long-standing and dedicated athlete, he embodies the spirit of perseverance and discipline, inspiring others through his sporting endeavors.